الشركة الإيطالية للسياحة
ITALIAN TOURISM CO

الشركة الإيطالية للسياحة ITALIAN TOURISM CO

The Italian Tourism Company is the largest destination management company in Northern Sudan specialized in cultural and archaeological tours, MICE and business travel; it has an operational office in Khartoum and representative office in Italy, where also its sister company is based.

The Italian Tourism Co. is a fully registered Sudanese Company, but as the name might suggest, its origins come from Italy. The founders are an Italian couple Elena Valdata and Maurizio Levi who travelled extensively through Africa with a special interest in the desert areas. They started travelling in Sudan in the '80ies. In the year 2000, they founded the Italian Tourism Co. and built two unique properties, the Nubian Rest House in Karima and Meroe Camp near the Meroe Pyramids. In July 2012 they created also an Italian NGO called Amici del Sudan – cultura e ambiente (Friends of Sudan – culture and environment) to support social projects in Sudan. Since its establishment the Italian Tourism Co. provides high-quality tourism services across Northern Sudan offering fascinating cultural tours, knowledgeable guides and unforgettable stays in its unique properties.

Now, after about thirteen years from its birth, the Italian Tourism Co. decided to open a new department, an outgoing travel agency, to offer our clients the possibility to travel beyond the borders of Sudan and to discover new fascinating destinations, carefully selected.

Each tour has been carefully selected to encompass new wonderful experiences from extraordinary landscapes, wildlife encounters and learning about new cultures and history. The wealth of knowledge and experience of our sister company in Italy, I Viaggi di Maurizio Levi, that since the 80ies offers tours all over the world, will ensure every trip is unforgettable!

The Italian Tourism Co. will be your gateway to escape from the local routine.

Our travel philosophy

The aim of our tours is to allow you to get deep inside the culture of these countries. You will visit villages and meet their inhabitants, attend local ceremonies and traditions, taste local cuisine, walk among wonderful landscapes looking out for amazing wildlife, cross forests, dunes and mountains. We focus on local culture respecting the diversity and the environment. Leave behind only footprints; bring home with you amazing memories.

The itineraries that we offer usually cover wild territories, far away from mass tourism. Our local guides deeply respect their environment, few simple rules will help travellers to respect the local environment:

- Preserve the planet and its diversity
- We do not take or buy illegal products from the land or that belong to the historical heritage of the country (antique objects, fossils, minerals, shells, corals, exotic plants or flowers and so on)
- Learn and try to use some local words especially 'Please' and 'Thanks'
- Take pictures of people only after asking for permission
- We do not leave any kind of rubbish behind

Preserving the environment we improve our life and we guarantee the next generations the right to experience and enjoy the natural treasures in the world as we did.

JORDAN

The gem of the Middle East

5 days

An ancient country, crossroads of nomads and great cultures. In ancient times the Nabataeans, who for centuries controlled the Incense Route across the Arabian peninsula, have left in Petra the most beautiful ruins of ancient necropolises in the Mediterranean basin. They bewitched also the legendary Lawrence of Arabia who wrote: 'you will never know what Petra is like, unless you come out here. You cannot imagine how beautiful a place can be'.

Day 1 / Khartoum – Amman: arrival in Amman, meet and greet with your guide, transfer to the hotel, dinner and overnight stay.

Day 2 / Amman –Umm Qays – Jerash – Amman: after breakfast, visit of Umm Qays, the ancient Gadara, perched on a splendid hilltop overlooking the Jordan Valley and the Sea of Galilee, and boasts an impressive colonnaded street, a vaulted terrace, and the ruins of two theatres. You then continue southwards to Jerash, which boasts an unbroken chain of human occupation dating back more than 6,500 years. Jerash lies on a plain surrounded by hilly wooded areas and fertile basins. Conquered by General Pompey in 63 BC, it came under Roman rule and was one of the ten great Roman cities of the Decapolis League. The city's golden age came under Roman rule, during which time it was known as Gerasa, and the site is now generally acknowledged to be one of the best-preserved Roman provincial towns in the world. In the evening, return in Amman and overnight stay.

Day 3 / Amman – Mount Nebo – Madaba – Karak – Petra: morning visit of Mount Nebo, mentioned in the Bible as the place where Moses was granted a view of the Promised Land. Later visit of Madaba, also called 'City of Mosaics'. Best known for its spectacular Byzantine and Umayyad mosaics, Madaba is home to the famous 6th century Mosaic Map of Jerusalem and the Holy Land. You reach then Karak, glorious fortified town. In the evening, arrival to Petra.

Best time to go: October to May
Visa on arrival
Private departures with English speaking guide

Day 4 / Petra: full day visit of the city, a real gem of a glorious past. The giant red mountains and vast mausoleums are one of the greatest wonders ever wrought by nature and man. Petra, is Jordan's most valuable treasure. It is a vast, unique city, carved into the sheer rock face by the Nabataeans, an industrious Arab people who settled here more than 2000 years ago, turning it into an important junction for the silk, spice and other trade routes that linked China, India and southern Arabia with Egypt, Syria, Greece and Rome.

Day 5 / Little Petra – Amman – Khartoum: in the morning short visit of Little Petra, nestled in a slot canyon with similar structures carved out of the cliff as Petra, but on a much smaller, and more approachable scale. Later you move to Amman airport to board your flight back to Khartoum.

Day 2 / Delhi - Agra: transfer to Agra by surface and upon arrival, check-in at the hotel. Afternoon sightseeing of Agra with its majestic Taj Mahal and Agra fort. The Taj Mahal, a spectacle in white marble, shows the grandeur and opulence of that era. The awesome structure, the monument of love that Mughal Emperor Shah Jahan gave to the world, stands as a testimony of his intense love for his wife Mumtaz Mahal. Taj Mahal means "Crown Palace" and is in fact the most well preserved and architecturally beautiful tomb in the world. The English poet, Sir Edwin Arnold has described the Taj as 'not a piece of architecture, as other buildings are, but the proud passions of an emperor's love wrought in living stones'.

Day 3 / Agra - Jaipur: drive to Jaipur en-route visiting Fatehpur Sikri, the deserted red sandstone city, built by the Great Mughal Emperor Akbar as his capital and palace in the late 16th century. Arrival in Jaipur, check-in, dinner and overnight.

Day 4 / Jaipur: after breakfast, enjoy an excursion to Amber Fort, riding an elephant. Afternoon visit to the City Palace, which is an overwhelming complex of exquisite palaces, gardens and courtyards, decorative art and carved doorways. The palace museum houses collections of rare manuscripts, armory, costumes, carpets and miniature paintings. Visit of the Jaipur's Jantar Mantar, the most famous of five observatories built by Sawai Jai Singh in India.

Day 5 / Jaipur - Delhi - Khartoum: after a leisurely morning, you will be transferred to Delhi by surface. Upon arrival, transfer to the hotel for a shower and later, transfer to the airport to board your international flight to Khartoum.
